ENFORCEMENT BUREAU'S
MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE COMMENTS

1. By The Tennis Channel, Inc. v Comcast Cable Communications, LLC, Order, FCC 10M-10-203 (ALJ, rel. May 19, 2011), the Presiding Judge directed the Enforcement Bureau ("Bureau"), to submit comments by July 1, 2011, on the Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law; Proposed Replies thereto; and Proposed Recommended Decisions, filed respectively by The Tennis Channel, Inc. ("Tennis Channel") and Comcast Cable Communications, LLC ("Comcast"). The Enforcement Bureau, pursuant to Section 1.205 of the Commission's Rules,¹ hereby respectfully requests an additional four business days, until July 8, 2011, to prepare and file its comments.

2. The referenced Order afforded the Bureau eight business days from the date of the last filing by the named parties in this case to prepare and file its comments. Given the breadth and volume of those pleadings, the complexity of the evidentiary record developed in this proceeding, and the unexpected demands of other critical enforcement-related business, the Bureau finds that it will be unduly burdensome to submit its comments to the Presiding Judge by the July 1, 2011, deadline. The Bureau also believes that the brief extension of time requested herein will not likely disturb the further procedural schedule in this case consisting of oral arguments on July 12, 2011.

3. Accordingly, good cause having been shown, the Bureau respectfully requests that the Presiding Judge extend the deadline by four business days, until Friday, July 8, 2011, within which the Bureau may file its comments. The Bureau has notified the office of the Presiding Judge and the other parties in this proceeding by telephone of its intention to file the instant motion. Both Tennis Channel and Comcast have authorized the Bureau to represent that they have no objection to the Bureau's request for an extension of time.

Respectfully submitted,
P. Michele Ellison
Chief, Enforcement Bureau
